

Scaling Up Microfinance

New Microfinance Products for Scale and Increasing Impact Webinar May 14, 2013

Presenter Bios

Joshua Turnbull: A driven, creative leader in consumer financial services, Joshua Turnbull leads consulting work at CFSI, the nation's authority on financial services for the underserved. In this position, he helps financial services companies—including large banks, retailers, small to mid-sized depositories, financial technology firms, and nonprofits—define strategies, implement business plans, and launch profitable products. Mr. Turnbull's experience spans operations, P&L management, marketing, and strategy at financial technology firms and banks. Prior to CFSI, Turnbull held a number of leadership roles at FIS, the world's largest provider of financial services and payments technology, including product management, marketing strategy, and business strategy roles for consumer risk management, fraud, compliance, and online and mobile banking solutions. He began his career in financial services at U.S. Bank, where he held both retail branch and commercial credit management roles.

Sheri Flanigan-Vazquez, MSW: Sheri is the Chief Operating Officer of Justine PETERSEN where she joined staff in 1998. She is a founder of Great Rivers Community Capital, a CDFI. Sheri has a Master of Social Work from the Brown School at Washington University in St. Louis. Prior to joining Justine PETERSEN staff, Sheri was the Executive Director of La Casa Latina, a grassroots organization that assists non-English speaking Latinos. She was a founding board member of Choices Federal Credit Union and is currently a board member of Midwest Renewable Capital and on the Community Advisory Board of IFF.